

Stick Pouches

Global Markets, Economics, and Technologies 2006 - 2010

“Stick Pouches” is a global study of the stick pouch industry. This 180 page edition is the first study dedicated to the stick pouch industry.

The stick pouch market has reached nearly 200 billion stick pouches, including segments with growth exceeding 30% per year. Will this growth be maintained? What will drive it? Where is the competition?

Where is the largest growth potential...Healthcare, Food, or Other? Wet or Dry?

Consumer's quest for convenience! How are consumer product companies responding?
